You're welcome to dine with us

Mealtimes are an important part of each day and we welcome residents' family and friends to enjoy their loved one's company along with delicious, freshly made food, prepared here by our talented Chef.

Spend some quality time together while enjoying a Sunday roast or even host a special tea party here with us.

Please note that a nominal fee may apply for guests.

If you'd like to dine with us, please inform our reception in advance of your visit.
