Hello and Welcome!

Well... We have been busy over the past few month, I am sure you will agree that Egle and Jibin have been organizing many events to keep us all active. What would be nice is more relatives, friends & the community to join in and/or help with these functions. If anyone can spare even an hour of their time or have any ideas to share please contact activities coordinator Egle.

We have yet another busy few weeks/months coming up and I am sure you would enjoy the singing & fun activities that we are holding. Check out this newsletter which is packed with what's going on.... And of course we have our activities boards to keep an eye of what is happening in & out of the home. Please support the work that Woodland View Team do.

A reminder for this time of year.... That if you have any coughs, colds, winter tummy bugs that you avoid visiting the home, as it spreads very quickly in our environment.

This month we will hold The Biggest Coffee Morning to support Macmillan Cancer Support, everyone is more than welcome.
